

16th-20th c. Lithuanian textile (tapestries made by local and Western European masters in the 16th-20th c., which belonged to sovereigns, noblemen and gentlemen of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania; liturgical vestments; needlecraft by craftsmen from Lithuanian monasteries and convents; the collection of the so-called Sluckas Kontush sashes; 18th-19th c. fans and beadwork; textile works by the 20th-century professional masters; a sample collection of printed silk sketches and printed silk pieces by Romanas Sirotskis, who worked at Kaunas textile factories). (2376 digital images)